Charles Lundberg Receives Minnesota State Bar Association Professional Excellence Award

Date: June 24, 2005 — Minneapolis, MN

Bassford Remele is pleased to announce that Shareholder Charles E. Lundberg is the recipient of the 2005 Minnesota State Bar Association (MSBA) Professional Excellence Award. The Professional Excellence Award, the association's most prestigious award, is presented in recognition of outstanding efforts to advance the legal profession and the administration of justice.

The award was presented by MSBA President David Stowman on June 17, 2005, during the association's annual convention in Brainerd, Minnesota. In his remarks, Stowman cited Lundberg's contributions to the profession and scholarship in the area of professional ethics, his teaching in professionalism, and his day-to-day practice serving as a "lawyer's lawyer" in legal malpractice defense, appeals, and legal ethics.

For more than 25 years, Lundberg has been writing and publishing scholarly works on professional ethics and professionalism. In addition, over the past 10 years he has taught more than 40 CLE courses on the subject, with a focus on providing practical, not just theoretical, ways for lawyers to practice at a higher level of professionalism.

In addition to his practice at Bassford Remele in all areas of the law of lawyering, Lundberg also devotes much of his time to appeals, and has been recognized as one of the state's top appellate attorneys. Recently he spear-headed an effort to assist judges facing contested appellate judicial elections by organizing support for sitting judges on the Minnesota Supreme Court and Court of Appeals among the 100 leading appellate lawyers in the state.
